The President has reappointed Edgar H. Jones as United States Marshal of the Western district of Kentucky.

With their wives watching them from the bank, two men were swept from their buggy while attempting to ford a stream near Bardwell and drowned.

Bob Hurley, of Hazel Patch, shot and killed Deputy Sheriff R. B. Eversole because the latter leveled on some of his property. Hurley made his escape and is still at large.

That he might continue to serve his constituents in the Kentucky Legislature, W. T. Lasley, of Logan county, has resigned his commission as captain in the National Army.

Henry S. Chubb, national committeeman of the Republican party from Florida and chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, died of pneumonia at his home at Princeton, near 60 years.

Three men were killed at Indianapolis when a train hit the automobile in which they were riding. The driver attempted to pass in front of the train and the engine chucked in the middle of the track.

In order to speed up the movement of freight, the Eastern railroads have cut off a number of through passenger trains and have also reduced the schedule of others. Similar action, it is expected, will be taken by other railroads.

Fifteen to twenty American bluejackets entered the office of the Daily Call, a radical newspaper at Seattle, Wash., and almost completely wrecked the institution, according to witnesses. It was said the sailors were led by two civilians.

Italy has adopted a drastic new policy to increase her fighting forces. Physical requirements have been modified and all men between the ages of eighteen and forty-four years previously exempted as defective are ordered to present themselves for further examination.

That a number of drafted men at Camp Zachary Taylor have deliberately injured themselves by cutting off "trigger fingers" or toes or by cutting drugs in their eyes, is the belief of camp officers. Ten are to be removed for trial on these charges. Their names are withheld.

Announcement made that the Furnace Oil & Gas Company, a Lexington corporation incorporated in 1916 with a capital stock of $10,000, has closed a deal for the sale of its 300-barrel oil production property in Estill county to a syndicate of Louisville business men for $250,000.

Albert H. Gary, in an address in Chicago, advocated the temporary lifting of the immigration restrictions against Chinese in order to relieve the serious labor. He declared that every thinking man should face the fact that so far the fruits of victory belong to the Central Powers.

Recent graduates of an American flying class will be sent to the front next week for actual front line experience. Many wagers are being made as to who will be the first to cross the German lines, who will bring down the first enemy airplane and who will take the first photograph of a German battery.

Indiana Senators in an appeal to President Wilson asked that immediate steps be taken to prevent Fred C. Miller, an enemy alien, from being inaugurated Mayor of Michigan City, Ind. The Senators urged that regulations governing enemy aliens be changed so as to prevent them from holding public office.

Legislation asked by President Wilson in connection with Government operation of the nation's railroads heads the program of Congress this week. On Thursday the woman suffrage question will be settled in the House, and the Senate on Tuesday will resume consideration of Senator La Follette's alleged disloyal St. Paul speech. Other important matters are prominent on this week's program.

President Wilson, in an address to both houses of Congress in joint session Saturday, asked legislation to regulate the Government's operation of railroads and to guarantee the carriers compensation on the basis of their average operating income for the past three years. Opposition is expected to develop over a provision of the Administration bill that was introduced that Federal control shall continue after the war.

Despite concerted efforts to relieve the coal shortage in New York Saturday, the city experienced its worst distress, since the cold weather began a week ago. Thousands of families, rich and poor, are without heat or hot water, while brick office buildings have been forced to close because of lack of fuel. Refusal of New Jersey Fuel Administrators to permit truckloads of coal to be taken across the Hudson River added another complication to the situation.

Feeling it to be his duty to go directly into the military service for which he was trained at West Point, Maj. Grayson Murphy, of New York, head of the American Red Cross mission to Europe, has resigned and is preparing to leave France for the United States to be transferred from the Red Cross to active army service. Maj. James H. Perkins, vice president of the National City Bank of New York, now in France with the commission, is expected to succeed Maj. Murphy.

SOON OVER HIS COLD
Everyone knows well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N. Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold."

MARRIAGES.

Lewis Hershel Humble, of Somerset, and Miss Sara Elizabeth Thompson, of Paris, celebrated New Year's day by getting married.

Mrs. W. S. Embury received a card from her cousin, Miss Mary Miller, of Richmond, stating that her twin sister, Miss Margaret Miller, had been married a few days previously to a Mr. Conoley, a well-known and prosperous Madison county farmer. Miss Miller has frequently visited Mrs. Embury and has many friends here who want to congratulate the young man who has won her heart and hand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Salice, of Harrodsburg, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss M. Kay Salice, to Mr. Robert Benton Woods, of Stanford, which took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's cousin, Dr. Martin D. Hardin and Mrs. Hardin. Mr. and Mrs. Woods will arrive the first of this week to be the guests of Mrs. Woods' sister, Mrs. Brent Altscheler, and Mrs. Altscheler.—Sunday's Courier-Journal.

J. D. Willis, of St. Louis, and Miss Katherine Brounagh, of Crab Orchard, were married at The Seashell in Louisville Saturday and at once left for their home in St. Louis, where they will remain until the spring season opens. While the two had been sweethearts for some time, their marriage was quite a surprise to their friends here and at Crab Orchard, and no intimation had been given of their intentions. The groom is a son of Mrs. J. B. Willis, proprietress of Crab Orchard Springs and is a fine business man with a legion of friends. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. R. H. Brounagh of Crab Orchard, is an exceedingly handsome young woman, popular with a large circle of friends and is in every way fitted to make her husband a helpmeet in all the word rooms. Heartily congratulations and good wishes are being written and wired Mr. and Mrs. Willis in their St. Louis home.

The following is taken from a paper published at Nogales, Arizona. The bride is well known here, where she lived for several years; Saturday, at high noon, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Short Long, in Nogales, Arizona, was the scene of a pretty home wedding in which the high contracting parties are the son of the house, Mr. Virgil Long, and Miss Miranda White, of Sonora, daughter of Mr. James I. White of that locality. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John Colyer and Mr. Colyer. The young couple are known well in Santa Cruz county. The young man was reared in Nogales, and is a sterling, worthy gentleman; the young lady is the daughter of one of the most prominent farmers in the Sonora region, who settled there some eight years ago, having come from Kentucky. About a year ago Mr. Long bought the Woodruff place, a fine quarter section of land, highly improved, about a mile this side of Sonora station, right next to the line of the railway, and there is the home of the newly wedded pair.

Dr. A. W. Fortune, head of the department of Christian history and doctrine at the College of the Bible, Lexington, declined an offer as pastor of the First Christian Church, at Los Angeles.

At the Baptist Sunday school Sunday morning, Mr. J. C. McClary was re-elected superintendent for the 28th consecutive year. Mrs. Jesse D. Wearen, who has been the efficient secretary-treasurer for the past seven years, asked not to be re-elected and Clarence Singleton was elected in her stead.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will hold prayer services at the home of Mrs. A. B. Florence Thursday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, and at the same hour at the home of Mrs. Mary Penny on Saturday afternoon. After the prayer meeting at Mrs. Florence's Thursday afternoon, the Ladies' Aid Society will hold a business meeting. A full attendance of the members both of the Woman's Missionary and Ladies' Aid Society is greatly desired.

Twenty-four hours after abatement of the unprecedented Sunday blizzard, Chicago's streets were badly impeded yesterday. Traffic, for the most part, was confined to the paths made by street cars, which made uncertain progress through canyons of snow, heaped and drifted on either side of the tracks.

The food animals of the allies have decreased since the war began by about 33,000,000 head, and yet the liquor industry withdraws sufficient grain to supply the bread ration to more than 22,000,000 men.

Sheriff J. L. Cox, of Carter county, is dead. His death was marked by coincidence in that he expired on the fifty-fourth anniversary of his birth and on the day when his term of office as Sheriff expired.

AGED MR. URIAH DUNN DEAD

Mr. Uriah Dunn, one of the oldest, best and best known citizens of the West End, died at Barnwell, S. C., Friday after a protracted illness. He had gone to Barnwell some weeks previous to his illness to trade in horses and mules during the winter, as had been his custom for many years. Mrs. John Sandiche, his only child, went to her father's bedside some weeks ago and remained with him until the end came. A general giving away and a leaking heart brought about the end of the talented man. Mr. Dunn would have been 80 years old had he lived until July next. The remains were brought to his late home at Hustonville Monday morning and at 3 o'clock that afternoon, after services by his late pastor, Dr. A. H. Raugh, were laid to rest in the Hustonville cemetery by the side of his son, Jesse Dunn, who died a dozen or more years ago. Besides the daughter, Mrs. Sandiche, mentioned above, Mr. Dunn is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of the late David Carpenter, and a sister, Mrs. Bettie Fowler, of Stanford. Deceased was an uncle of Mr. W. M. Bright, of this city. Asked something about his life, Mrs. Fowler said this morning: "There was never a better man. You can not say too much about such a noble character as his was. Lincoln county certainly loses one of its best and purest men."

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

Anthony C. McElroy, 86, years old, died at his home in Springfield of paralysis.

Mrs. Emily Ontic Jones, aged 87, is dead at Monticello. She was a daughter of the late Roger Ontic.

For the first time in its history Washington county Monday went under Republican control in county affairs.

Women workers in Madison county, workers for the Red Cross, have been in attendance at the tobacco sales at Richmond, during the past week, soliciting funds for the society. They have been given about 1,800 pound of the weed.

The Modern High School and Eastern Normal have reason to be proud of the patriotic spirit of one of the young men here. Mr. Lloyd Moore, of McKee, Jackson county, while home on his Xmas vacation found time to knit a sweater for a soldier.—Richmond Register.

MR. HATCHER LOSES FATHER

Mr. W. A. Hatcher, of this county, has been called upon to give up his father, Mr. Thomas H. Hatcher, whose death occurred at his late home near Horse Cave. Deceased was 74 years old and was one of his county's best and most influential men and a devout member of the Baptist church. Besides the son here, four other children survive. Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher left Sunday to attend the burial.

JOHN LEWIS SUCCOMBS SUNDAY

John Lewis, aged 49, died at his home near Hales Well at 11 o'clock Sunday after a protracted illness of tuberculosis and was buried at Fairview church after funeral services conducted by Mr. J. C. McClary at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mr. Lewis moved to this county from Clinton county several years ago. He is survived by his wife and several children.

ARE YOUR SEWERS CLOGGED?

The bowels are the sewerage system of the body. You can well imagine the result when they are stopped up as in the case in constipation. As a purgative you will find Chamberlain's Tablets excellent. They are mild and gentle in their action. They also improve the digestion.

Another American steamship, the Harry Luckenbach, has been sunk by an enemy submarine somewhere in the war zone. Eight members of the crew of the steamers are reported missing.

D. A. R.'s HOLD MEETING

The Logan Whitey Chapter met Jan. 4th for December, with Mrs. T. W. Pennington, six being present, the zero weather keeping many away. Miss Susan Fisher Woods, the new Regent, conducted her first meeting most gracefully. Every member in the National Society is urged to give $1.00 toward the buying of Liberty Bonds. All present agreed to do so, and others had expressed their willingness. The program for the year was read and accepted. To save money the committee copied them. The war is the chief subject for the year. Besides the six regular meetings, a Red Cross evening comes every extra month. At these meetings Red Cross work is to be done and some one is to read about the Red Cross or the war. No refreshments are to be served. The first Red Cross meeting is to be with Miss Sue Roul. All responded to roll call with articles on the war. At the social hour a delicious Hoover lunch was served. Mrs. Rodman Keaton, of Frankfort, sister of the hostess, was her house guest.

PORTRAIT OF GOV. McCREARY

Some time ago a resolution was passed by the Richmond Bar Association, requesting ex-Gov. James R. McCreary to have a portrait made and present it to Madison county. Accordingly this estimable citizen sent for Sudduth Goff, formerly of Boston, and now of Lexington, Ky., and for the past two weeks gave twenty sittings to this painter, who completed the portrait the latter part of last week. The Richmond Bar named the following committee to have charge of placing this portrait in the Circuit Court room: Hons. R. H. Crooke, A. R. Rurnam, Jr., and Judge Murray Smith, and on Saturday the committee placed the portrait in one of the best positions and many have gathered to gaze upon this fine likeness of one of Madison's greatest sons.—Richmond Register.

INCOME TAX MEN COMING

Deputy Collectors H. R. Sandley and Paul Goddard will be in Stanford from the morning of Jan. 9th to 22nd to take the lists of all those who are subject to the provisions of the Income Tax Law. The First National Bank of Stanford has generously tendered the use of one of its rooms to the government men, and they will be found there from early morning until late at night. If you are a married man and made as much as $2,000 during the past year you had best see these men. A single man is allowed an exemption of $1,000.

'OLD FIDDLERS' CONTEST

W. J. Duncan is going to pull off a great old fiddlers' contest at McKinney next Saturday night, 12th, when he will give $13.50 in cash to the best fiddler; $7.50 to the second best and $4 to the third. Competent judges will say which gentlemen shall receive awards. There will be other music for the delectation of the crowd that will likely attend and a general good time is looked forward to. The admission prices will be 25c and 35c. Better join the crowd and go.

REPRESENTATIVE O'BANNON

W. S. Kaltenbecker, of the Louisville Times, has issued a book containing what he terms "Thumbnail Sketches of Members of the 1918 General Assembly." This brief sketch is given of Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, who represents Lincoln county in the Legislature. "Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, Stanford, Representative of Sixty-sixth district, Lincoln county, physician and farmer. Served as Councilman and School Trustee of Stanford."

GOOD RIDDANCES THESE

Charles Baughman and Will Lee, both well-known and seemingly successful blind tiger operators, have shaken the dust of Stanford from their feet, to the credit of Stanford. He it said. Where they have gone it matters not, just so they don't bother this good town again. Officers were after them and they took French leave and took it in a hurry.

"POSSUM" BACK IN THE PEN

"Possum" Rout, who was sent to the penitentiary for life for the killing of Clay Drye, also colored, and who was paroled some months ago, is back in the pen, where he will likely remain for the remainder of his natural life. The reason for his being deprived of his parole is that he drew a "gun" on Pearl Embury, a colored man of this place.

COUNTY OFFICERS QUALIFIED

The newly elected county officers all qualified Monday, as did Dr. R. L. Davison, who succeeded himself as city judge of Stanford. The I. J. in its Friday's issue will have an extended mention of the new county officers as well as of those they have succeeded.

DEATH OF LITTLE GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daugherty, of the Hustonville section, were called on to give up their little daughter, Ruth Alene Daugherty last week. The little thing died very suddenly. Its remains were taken to Somerset for interment.

STOMACH TROUBLES

If you have trouble with your stomach you should try Chamberlain's Tablets. So many have been restored to health by the use of these tablets and their cost is so little, 25 cents, that it is worth while to give them a trial.

RED CROSS NOTES

Please finish and return all knitted garments by Friday, Jan. 11th, as they must be sent to headquarters. Mrs. W. N. Craig, Chairman.

Harvey Pogue had his feet so badly frosted while walking from Boyd to Falmouth, he had to have them amputated.

POLITICS, CIRCUIT COURT, ETC.

The January term of the Rockcastle circuit court opened at Mt. Vernon Monday, with Judge B. J. Bethurum sitting and Commonwealth Attorney Walter Flippin looking after the State's interests. The jury was impaneled and the grand jury given its charge before the noon hour, after which the court-house was turned over to Charles Finley, of Williamsburg, who spoke for Banker J. M. Robison, of Louisville, who is after the seat in Congress Caleb Powers is now trying to hold down. Mr. Robison was advertised to speak but was detained by business and Mr. Finley, who has heretofore been Powers' right hand, represented him. He made a good talk from his standpoint. Starting out he said that he had been for Powers in every race he had ever made and had always supported him loyally and heartily, but that he thinks now that Powers, having been thoroughly vindicated of the charges of conspiracy against the life of Gov. Goebel, and having been given what he asked—as long a term in Congress as the democrats, made him stay in jail—that he should be succeeded by a Republican who can do more for his constituency than he, Powers, has shown that he can do. He had no harsh words for Powers but insisted that he had been given his full desert and that he having refused to retire and give some other man a chance, the only way to get his seat is to nominate and elect some other good man—Mr. Robison, for instance, to it. Mr. Finley's effort was full of patriotism. Unlike Powers, he endorsed the selective draft system, thinks that President Wilson did right in urging Congress to declare war, believes the income tax is just and should be paid without a murmur, etc. In fine, it was an unusually patriotic, well-tempered speech, just what was not expected by those who know what a "fire-eater" Mr. Finley is at times. There was a noticeable lack of applause, however, and the writer fears that Mr. Powers' strength was decreased very little, if any, by Finley's clever effort. Powers was not represented, and Finley had the field alone.

The docket of the court which began Monday is heavy and it is hardly probable that the work will be completed in the allotted time. Two murder cases will likely be tried. They are Emmett Gentry for killing Joe Suttles, and Frank Cox, on the charge of killing a man named Sutton. The court is losing no time, for at the conclusion of Mr. Finley's speech, Judge Bethurum convened court and tried several minor cases. It was dark when he adjourned, but in the course of hours several cases of carrying concealed weapons and others of that class had been disposed of.

The new county officers took charge Monday and went about their work like veterans. Tin Langford, who was serving his first day as sheriff, seemed to have an excellent idea of his duties and performed them well.

As an aftermath of the hot campaign of last fall, Cam Mullins has sued Matt G. Ballard for $5,000 damages for circulating what he claims was a libelous circular. Mullins succeeded Mr. Ballard as county judge. A report was current Monday night that the case might be dropped.

Mt. Vernon continues to grow and prosper. The merchants all report a good business and the two banks are chock full of money. Rockcastle's capital is a good, substantial town and promises some day to be a city of considerable pretensions.

Mrs. H. J. Mullins died at her home in Mt. Vernon and was buried Monday after services at her late home by Rev. Young, of the Christian church. Besides her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. U. G. Baker, and several sons, including Chris H. Mullins, who lived in Stanford a number of months, and who made many friends while here. Mrs. Mullins was one of her town's best women and her death has cast a gloom over the people of the little city, where she was so greatly beloved.

STATE-WIDE RESOLUTION

An announcement has been made that Representative-elect J. Horan Ballard, of Garrard county, will during the approaching session of the Assembly, offer in the House a resolution for the submission of a State-wide prohibition amendment to the Kentucky Constitution. Representative-elect Ballard, in a statement just issued says that he anticipated legislative co-operation with the Governor on the measure, and that the bill, which is the same as that introduced at the last session of the Legislature, had received the indorsement of prohibition leaders in the State.

MUSICAL—LITERARY CONTEST

There will be a Musical and Literary Contest under the auspices of the Woman's Club at the graded school building, Friday, January 11th at 3 P. M. Prizes are offered by the club for the best piano number, and for the best paper on "How Can I Help to Make Our Community Clean and Beautiful." The contestants will be from the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Show your interest in the school and in your community by being present.

A LONG FREIGHT TRAIN

A freight train passed North Sunday night with 61 loaded cars, most of them carrying coal and coke. It took two big engines to pull the heavy cargo.

D. T. Blodgett, of Des Moines, Ia., was sentenced to 20 years in the Federal prison for violation of the espionage law and circulating anti-draft literature.

ADMINISTRATION FORCES WIN

It will be good for the many friends of Gov. Stanley and his administration to learn that the administration forces at Frankfort won all along the line in the organization of both Houses of the Legislature. Representative Robert T. Crowe, of Lagrange, representing the Oldham-Trimbale district will be Speaker of the House and Senator Thomas A. Combs, of Lexington, President Pro tem of the Senate. The race for Speaker was one of the most exciting held in many years and the result was in doubt to all but a few until the final vote had been cast, when Representative Crowe was declared the winner, by a vote of 33 to 27 for Claude M. Thomas, of Bourbon county, the Anti-Administration candidate. The first test of strength of the two factions came in the race for chairman of the House caucus. When Judge H. C. Rice, Representative from Madison county, a brother of Judge T. A. Rice, of this city defeated the Rev. George C. Waggoner, of Scott county, by a vote of thirty-six to twenty-four, it was announced that the Administration forces were in the saddle, although it was known that two or three who voted for Judge Rice had done so for personal reasons and would not be found in the Administration camp in the speakership race. This proved true, when O. V. Brown of McLean county; H. V. Dill, of Campbell county, and J. T. Thornton, of Newport, voted for Judge Rice for chairman of the caucus, and for Representative Thomas for Speaker. Representative Thomas landed the votes of seventeen of the twenty-three Representatives from "wet" districts. The "wet" districts were McCracken, 1; Christian, 1; Henderson, 1; Davies, 2; Nelson, 1; Jeffers, 8; Kenton, 3; Campbell, 2; Fayette, 2; Boyd, 1, and Franklin, 1. Of these Thomas, for Speaker, was supported by all but one, from Henderson; two from Louisville; one from Nelson and two from Fayette. The result shows that much of the administration's strength came from "dry" territory, indicating confidence on the part of the masses as a whole, won by the Governor through an upright administration and regard for his pledges.

MISS COWAN DIES SUDDENLY

Although confined to her room for some time, the death of Miss Mary Cowan, at the home of her nephew, Mr. Josh B. Jones, came as a great surprise Sunday evening. She had been sitting around as usual and got up to move her chair. Resuming her seat, she died almost instantly. She was 83 years old and was born in Somerset. She came to this county when her nephew moved here many years ago and had made her home with him. Deceased was a sister of the late Samuel Cowan, of the West End, and consequently an aunt of the Misses Cowan and Mr. W. G. Cowan, of Hustonville, and Mrs. J. N. Meneff, of this city. She was also an aunt of the several Newells living in the Milledgeville section of the county. Others of her nephews, brothers of Mr. Josh Jones, are Robert Jones, of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Edgar Jones, of Joice, Wash.; and John Jones, of St. Joe, Mo. Mr. Sam G. Sastello, formerly of this county, but now residing in Boyle, is another nephew of the good woman. Miss Cowan had been a member of the Presbyterian church almost all of her life, having joined the Pisgah church in Pulaski in her youth. She was a most excellent woman and the many who knew her and admired her for her admirable traits of character are saddened that she is gone from them. The burial took place in Buffalo Springs Cemetery at 2 o'clock this afternoon, after services at the late home by Dr. P. L. Bruce, of the Presbyterian church.

TO THE PUBLIC GENERALLY

The Interior Journal is always glad to print contributions that contain real news and it is especially pleased to have reports of various club meetings, parties, etc., sent in, but they must be sent in time. Hereafter such reports received later than 5 o'clock Monday and Thursday afternoons will not be published in the paper the following day, but if of sufficient importance will be used in the next issue. Frequent requests failing to produce the desired results compels us to resort to this method of procedure.

SEVERANCE & SON TO MOVE

Severance & Son, who have occupied the room they are now in for the past 11 years, will about Feb. 1st move into the store-room now occupied by Pence & Hill, furniture men, who will in the future occupy the room just vacated by Mr. O. P. Huffman's grocery. The vault in the Huffman, or the old State Bank room, is being torn out and it naturally improves the appearance and size of the room to be occupied by the popular furniture firm.

JUDGE BAILEY BUYS FARM

Judge James P. Bailey has bought of A. L. Thompson his farm of 70 acres, located near Mason's Gap. The judge recently sold his farm in that section and just couldn't get along without another. Mr. Thompson has bought two boundaries in Rockcastle county, one of Ben Cummins and the other of S. F. Bowman. He will move up soon and take charge, to the regret of the many friends he and his family have made during their sojourn in Lincoln.

Newton H. Myers, newly elected Mayor of Jeffersonville, took over the reins of office yesterday, and he and other Republicans standing into the "shoes" vacated by Democrats. He said all gambling must stop.

Presley Strother, a Nicholas county bootlegger who recently died, had $400 in a Lexington bank. He was thought to be penniless.

Entered at the postoffice at Stanford, Ky., as

One of the best sermons we have read in a long time is by Editor A. A. Howmar in his column in the Woodford Sun headed "A Country Editor's Thoughts." Taking Mr. Watterson's editorial of New Year's Day as a text which said "Democracy is but a side issue. The paramount issue, underlying the issue of Democracy, is the religion of Christ and Him Crucified, the bedrock of civilization; the source and resource of all that is worth having in the world that is and that gives promise of in the world to come," he launches into a personal testimony to the atoning blood of Jesus Christ which puts to shame the scoffers at the religion of the gentle Nazarine, that alone can save the war-cursed world from physical and spiritual destruction. It is the power of such testimony and the clean, pure life of our brother of the quill, that more and more confirms our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ to deliver us from the assaults of Satan, who seems to have been let loose for one last and final struggle to destroy the world and every living creature.

A Kansas City paper, which ought to be suppressed, pays Col. Roosevelt a big sum to express his views daily for publication, and he takes advantage of it to make the most treasonable charges against President Wilson and to endeavor to stir up trouble, which if made by a German, or any American for that matter, would cause them to be shot or hanged for treason. Instead of working to help the president, his sole object is to secure another term for himself, showing how base a man can be when obsessed with the ambition to possess power again. The president may show strength and character by enduring the slanderous thrusts, as some assert, but patience is not always a virtue and there should be a limit to it, by forcing the foul mouth of the slanderer to close. The ex-president is one of the most dangerous men in public life and if he is not tried and found guilty of treason, he should at least be entertained for the war.

H. Boyce Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church at Murray, is making a terrific fight against Red Cross work and the Murray Ledger is giving him fits—just what he deserves. A man claiming to be a preacher of Christ and Him crucified and opposing the great and good work that is being done by and through the Red Cross Chapters of this country, ought to be made to share a berth with the Kaiser in the place where the snow doesn't fall and where there is no water save in the lake of burning fire. To hedges with such a creature. This paper would not dignify him by calling him reverend, nor even a man.

In an argument in a contested election case in Congress the other day, a member made the statement that a negro candidate in South Carolina has brought a contest for a seat in the House after every election for years, practically living off the money given him for the purpose and large attorney's fees. As long as contestants are given big pay during the pendency of their cases, so long will they be taken advantage of by unscrupulous candidates. Unless it is shown that there was good ground for the contest, there should be a law compelling the contestant to pay his own expenses.

The Danville Advocate says in its Monday's edition that Hon. Claude Minor, Boyle's Representative in the Legislature, would nominate Hon. Robert Crowe, of Oldham, for Speaker. But that is where the Advocate was wrong again. Mr. Minor went with the opposition crowd—the gang that has done it darnedest to make Gov. Stanley's administration a failure—and voted for Hon. Claude M. Thomas, of Louisville. Let it be remembered that Mr. Thomas was backed by Dr. Alexander, of the Forward League fame, and Senator Beckham and those who do is bidding in Kentucky.

There are two courses open to the Legislature which met at noon today: To ratify the amendment to the constitution submitted by Congress to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors or submit the question to popular vote. The latter seems the fairest method since the body was not elected to decide the question of prohibition, but with the general understanding that the question would be submitted. At any rate, we hope whatever it does it will do quickly and get the matter out of the way.

The president's address to congress is practically a repetition of his statement when he put all the railroads in the country under government control. On the strength of it, bills were presented in the House to appropriate $500,000,000 to insure expenses and pay the stockholders, the yearly dividends that the roads paid during the three years ending in July last. Director McAdoo has the biggest kind of a proposition on his hands, which seems to grow in magnitude the more it is contemplated.

An order has been issued that no married men with dependent families will be drafted till single men are exhausted. It is to be hoped that the rush of licenses will not cause Thompson Cooper and other county clerks to employ an additional force to issue the legal permits to marry.

A bill to legalize boxing will be presented in the Legislature this session. Good. We hope it will be passed. We want to be given the right to box the fellows' ears who asks "is it cold enough for you?" when the mercury is playing below the zero mark.

Safeguards Health of The Children

Constipation, or inaction of the bowels, is a great menace to health. Cathartic or purgative remedies should never be given to children. The violence of their action tends to upset the entire digestive system. A mild laxative is far preferable, and the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended. This preparation contains no opium, narcotic, or habit-forming drug of any description, is mild and gentle in its action, and brings relief in an easy, natural manner. Its pleasant taste appeals to children and they take it readily. Thousands of mothers have testified to the merit of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in countless homes it is the standard family remedy. A full bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 416 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS

Great Britain's war aims were set forth Saturday by Premier Lloyd George in the broadest and at the same time most specific manner in which they have yet been stated. In one of the most striking and comprehensive utterances of the war the Premier made it clear what the British nation and empire would regard as a just and durable peace. This, he declared, must be achieved by the re-establishment of the sanctity of treaties, territorial adjustments on the basis of self-government and the limitation of armaments guaranteed by an international organization. Great Britain was not fighting, said the Premier to disrupt Germany, destroy Austria-Hungary or take Turkey's capital or her home lands from her. Belgium must be completely restored and reparations made to her as far as possible; France must have the wrong of 1871—the taking from her Alsace-Lorraine—righted; an independent Poland must be established including all of Polish nationality who desire to join in it; the peoples of such regions as Arabia, Palestine, Mesopotamia and Armenia, who have been under Turkish domination, must have their separate national conditions recognized; the wishes and interests of the natives of the German colonies must be primarily regarded by the peace conference; the claims of Italy for reunion for those of her own race and language must be regarded as vital; Rumania, Serbia and Montenegro must be restored.

Former Senator Bailey, of Texas, in a long speech against the Federal Suffrage Amendment resolution, to be voted on in the House Thursday, contended yesterday, before the House Woman Suffrage Committee, that women are incapable of performing the three principal duties of citizenship, military service, sheriff service, and jury service, and should not help enact laws which they are incapable of obeying.

Suit filed in the Federal District Court at St. Louis on behalf of John W. Seaman, a stockholder, for the appointment of a receiver for the United Railways Company, of St. Louis, has aroused much interest in Louisville and Kentucky because of large holdings of stocks and bonds there.

The Supreme Court yesterday, in a unanimous opinion delivered by Chief Justice White, swept aside every contention raised against the selective draft act, upholding the law as constitutional, and ruling that troops to fight the enemy may be sent anywhere.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

It was the beer and wine quantity of alcohol that Kruepke found impaired accuracy in marksmanship in the Bavarian army.

Even with 25 per cent reduction in the cost of alcohol there will be a loss of $1,000,000,000 of the world's wealth.

General William Wilson, Canadian officer or soldier in uniform from drinking intoxicating liquor in places where it is on sale in the United States.

Brigadier General Julius Penn, in an address in Detroit, recently, declared that at the end of the war engaged men will demand prohibition. Ninety-five per cent of all the trouble in the army is due to liquor, he affirmed.

At a dinner given by the Gridiron Club of Washington City, at which President Wilson and noted men of the nation were guests, no liquor was served. This was the first dry dinner in the thirty-three years of the club's existence.

Col. M. E. Blake, commanding the coast artillery at Port MacArthur, Cal., recently made the statement that the enforcement of a "bone dry" law at the harbor would increase immeasurably the efficiency and the morale of the men in the service.

Dr. Douglas White is responsible for the statement that 80 per cent of the men who acquire venereal disease do so while under the influence of alcohol.

The United States has on a transportation basis the weight of more than 432,000,000 bushels of grain used up for beer shipment alone or 1,080,000 carloads lots a year, enough to relieve the railroad congestion of the country for all time.

The chaplain of the Canadian western battalion declares that 90 per cent of the men present a clear and clean "bill of health." This, he says, is due to the large prevalence of teetotalism among the Canadians.

It has been estimated by the war college of Washington City that the number of deaths caused by war is 700,000, and the number of wounded in battle is over 2,000,000. It has also been estimated that the total number of deaths and disabilities by reason of strong drink amounts, among the white race alone, to 3,500,000 per year. Every year there are greater losses from drink than have resulted from all the wars of the world.

With the world in need of food and with 20,000,000 producers called to the trenches in Europe, the liquor traffic withdraws 107,000,000 bushels annually from the bread supply.

LOOK AT A CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Take No Chances! Move Poisons
From Liver And Bowels At Once

Mothers can rest easy, after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not injure. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

LAND, STOCK AND CROPS

J. Fox Dudderar sold to Harris Bros., 20 435-pound calves at 8 1-2c. W. A. Brent sold to J. B. Hutchins, of Danville, 16 hogs averaging 190 pounds at 16 1-2c.

At the dispersal sale of Holsteins held by S. J. Lobdell, Wells, Vt., 48 head averaged $263.

Robert Meter bought of R. S. Caywood a 158-acre tract of land seven miles from Lexington, for $24,153.

A Lexington milk dealer was fined $25 for putting condensed milk in bottles and selling it for the real article.

John B. Anderson bought of Mrs. Stempley seven 50-pound shoats at 13c and sold a load of corn to J. H. Baughman & Co. at $6 per barrel.

Mrs. Ernest Meeks, of near Piqua, has a turkey hen that is in a manner worth its weight in gold. From this hen Mrs. Meeks raised 30 turkeys this year. Thirteen of them hatched May 14 and seventeen of them hatched June 18. The 30 turkeys were sold and realized Mrs. Meeks the neat sum of $94.07.

The largest farm sale ever recorded in Scott county was made Saturday when Stone & Buckley sold what is commonly known as the Mary Moore farm, located about four miles from Georgetown, on the Payne's Bend pike, for $113,000.

Harry Lazarus & Co., Bowling Green, bought one load of mules in Bowling Green, at from $70 to $267.50; one load in Winchester, at $240; one load in Tennessee, $215 to $300; one load in Indiana, $175 to $250. They sold one load in Florida at $85 to $190 and one in Georgia at $240.

They sold some young mules to farmers at $50 to $25 per pair. W. M. Smith had better luck out for the income tax man, for he can make a fortune from one hog. No telling what he makes with all his doings. He bought a hog for $7.50. Last fall he sold nine of her shoats for $130; June 3, he sold three shoats for $114; then he sold three more for $150; has three left worth $125, and finally he sold the hog for $78.40, and she was worth $10,000.—Richmond Post-Dispatch.

Contrary to past records the January court day proved to be unusually small in attendance and very little business was transacted. As is the custom, the farmers generally pour into Richmond in order to settle up accounts for the past year, and it proves a good day generally for the local merchants. However, the cold snap and snow that greeted the farmers Monday morning kept them hugging the fires and most of the farmers came to the conclusion that there was no place like home.

Madison county stockyards reported 1,500 cattle at 9 cents and 385 hogs selling at $15 per hundred. The East End Stockyards gave a similar report having 1,500 cattle and 300 hogs, strong on heavy stuff and light stuff a little weak.—Richmond Register.

Cincinnati Man Discovers Drug That Loosens Corns So They Lift Out

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezine, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any store which handles drugs, but this is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender-aching corn or toughed callus and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn or callus is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

A WAR OF WIT

A letter came to me asking that I put in this paper some pretty form of a guessing contest. How would this do?

What part of the body suggests an ecologist? The eye.

What part of the body is found in a tree? The limbs.

What is a bridge player's desire? Hands.

What should a good physician do? Heel.

What is the lot of slaves? Lashes.

What is a part of a shoe? The tongue.

What part of the body does a carpenter use? Nails.

What part of the body that is the seat of a man's affections? The stomach.

WHAT IS A PRO-GERMAN

A pro-German is a man who, by private or public utterances, stands in the way of a whole-hearted prosecution of this war and the defeat of the German will to conquer.

He may do it by finding fault with the conduct of the war. He may do it by impracticable peace arguments. He may do it through a mistaken policy. He may do it because he is in the pay of the German Government. He may do it because he has been befooled and bamboozled by those who are in Germany's pay.

The German will to expansion by conquest must be broken by defeat. If that rapacious will be not broken, the war will not give us peace. In all the history of the world there never existed a conquering nation less fit to rule others than are the Germans. This is true because the German policy is so brutal, so cruel, so scientifically exterminating. In the streets of every town in German Poland children are falling and dying of starvation. Children 8 to 12 years of age are being carried through the streets by their parents because they are too weak to walk—because of starvation. The Poles are being exterminated as fast as possible by the Germans just as the Armenians—the oldest Christian nation in the world—are being exterminated by the Germans and Turks. Why? Because Germany wants the property of the Poles for Germans after the war; and because they want the property of the Armenians for the Turks and Germans after the war.

Their will can and must be broken by defeat. It is not the will of the individual German. It is the bloody, brutal, cruel, devilish will of the German Government and the German ruling class, misdirected in the school which believes that war is the summation of human good.

A pro-German is anyone who stands in the way of our successful prosecution of the war. Every word that falls from the tongue of any American or is written by him carries with it a responsibility greater than ever existed in the history of this nation. Look well at what you say or do.

Germany has in this country hundreds of papers printed in the German tongue. Whether this ought to be or not is a grave question. If any of these papers are loyal, I do not know of them. Some of them may be, but I have not heard of them.

These and other papers and many individuals say they are for America, but none of them say they are against Germany.

He who is for us is against Germany. He who is not against Germany, tooth and nail, in this war is not for America.

You can tell the pro-German by another test: If he is against France, against Italy, or against Russia, he is pro-German.

The armies and navies of these Powers are fighting our fleet. They are dying by thousands every day to make the world safe for democracy. If we win, we must win because they do most of the fighting and dying, while we only do some of it.

The enemy of Great Britain is pro-German.

The enemy of Russia is pro-German and antidemocratic.

The enemy of Italy is against America.

The enemy of France is lost to every claim of patriotism.

Do not let these pro-Germans poison the atmosphere in your locality by slandering our allies without challenge. It is time to call down the man who fights against our armies with tongue or pen, no matter what flag those armies are fighting under.

Words are things. In such a crisis they are dreadful things, portentous things, things which cannot be allowed to pass as of no account.

Germany is penetrating every country of the world with her hired spies and traitors. She disorganized the Russian army through traitors after the revolution. She knew the plan of Russian battle before and through traitors. She has filled this country with spies and traitors. She has financed the I. W. W. without a doubt. She has destroyed property and delinquent our citizens.

Is there any American who does not long for peace? Not one? Neither is there a Briton or Frenchman or Italian or Russian. But it must not be a German peace, leaving the great spider in the center of his web waiting for another chance. It must be a real peace. It must be made with the German people or with a ruined Hohenzollern—one or the other. But he who talks peace as if he only longs for it, as if he only were commissioned to make peace, must want a different sort of peace from the sort we must have. Distrust him. He may be sincere, but he may not be.

The world has in the past been conquered by traitors—often more than it was ever conquered by arms. The Mexican people fought each other into slavery to Spain. Let us not be bought by German gold into slavery to Germany.

HOW STANFORD SOLDIER DISPERSED ATTACKS

"For two years my stomach trouble was so very bad, my doctor had to inject morphine on several occasions when I was stricken with these attacks. Since taking 4 bottles of May's Wonderful Remedy I have been entirely well and am serving in the United States Artillery, having been pronounced in perfect health by Government physicians." KIDD'S STORE

Mr. Everett Smith and family, of Meers county, W. Clin. Floyd and Miss Marie, of Hustonville, Horace Bohon, of Bowling Green, Ed Powell, wife and daughter, Margaret Rowe, of Lincoln, were our holiday visitors.

James Camden, of Sycamore Orchard, one of Casey's best farmers, moved into the handsome annex he has built to the old Pigg home.

A few car-loads of coal reached Moreland just before the blizzard and a load here and there has averted suffering, if not freezing.

Farmers had subordinated their wood piles to garnering the corn, and feel that their temporary supply of fuel was providential as the quails and manna of biblical history.

Weather Bureau at Louisville reports the late blizzard earliest, earliest December weather of its forty years' records.

December 8th, 1876, your correspondent was at Louisville, expecting to go to Carrollton by boat the 9th. That afternoon a heavy snowstorm preceded a gale of such fury before night that the ferry boats were tied up for two hours and street cars stalled by drifts. My boat, one of passenger packets, making daily runs between Louisville and Cincinnati, was due at dawn. Delayed by wind and ice it was dusk, Saturday 9th, when it was moored at its wharf to remain tied up till ice gorges were swept out of the Ohio in March. I have vivid memory of how fast the mercury fell that day and night, but no record of how far below zero, but lower than in 1917. In February 1886 there was a foot fall of snow at Danville, two feet here, three feet at Somerset and south, in mountains.

There were but four inches at Lexington, none at Cincinnati. Sunday morning, May 20, 1894, no Arctic explorer or Eskimo ever emerged from igloo on a bleaker prospect than greeted denizens of Central Kentucky when they awoke. One tomato plant was all of my tender vegetables which survived the foot fall of snow. The children gathered strawberries for dinner and used snow to provide ice cream. If there is other latitude of like capricious weather, where is it? Withal, altitude of Casey's peaks and plateaus assures such generous diffusion of invigorating fresh air that it is improbable other neighborhood can produce a parallel to ours. We had in 1917 a solid block of 35 patriarchal home and farm owners and tenants, six widows, all grandmothers, one a great grandmother, twenty-eight grandfathers, seven of them great grandfathers, one a great, great grandfather. Eight of the old couples celebrated golden weddings, two nearest neighbors.

Health, harmony and happiness. Of course the emigrant from old Casey, who can't get back always pines for even the husks of his nativity.

We leave it to metaphysicians to differentiate the law of compensation and apparent retribution or resentment in our excess of sluggishness, on the confines, who toil only in swiping the living they feel due them because they were born.

We send congratulations to George, the Interior's efficient, excellent, factotum, an honor to his race and his greatest modern guild—The Newspaper Fraternity.

The cold has deferred the greatest exchange of residents in all our history. Mrs. Bettie Williams has moved to the farm she bought north of Hustonville, after selling to James Gann, who succeeded in moving in.

Harrison Ramsey declined to rent the Kidd plantation, but has not determined where to move.

Ed Moran has changed farms. Buck Cooze is yet hesitant, and Jim Snow will probably move to the capital of the State of Casey.

Will Martin has moved back after two years' homesickness.

The Wrights have arranged to give J. B. Honaker possession, but have not decided on a home. We have not heard Gene Duan's plans.

But for phone neighbor's voice would not have cheered us in last three weeks' hibernation.

Carriers pluckily plowed their daily deliveries but there were three successive days no messenger opened our mail box. Conditions ideal for Santa and the greetings he brought were our greatest cheer.

Jovous New Year to our "cheapest and best," its galaxy and clientele!

At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kan.
